

April-June 2009 Army AL&T Magazine Podcast

Welcome and thank you for choosing Army AL&T Magazine as your information source.

This edition highlights the work of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Defense Exports and Cooperation (DASA(DE&C)) as it plays an integral role in security assistance, export policies, and Army defense item direct commercial sales.

Our feature article highlights Army international programs involving security cooperation, international engagement, and interoperability. These include foreign military sales, armaments cooperation, and direct commercial sales. Another feature article illustrates how the U.S. Security Assistance Command is using foreign military sales to enable security self-reliance in Iraq.

Additional articles feature the international acquisition and cooperation capabilities of the Joint Light Tactical Vehicle, the Excalibur, and the Javelin programs. Also highlighted are the recent travels of Mr. Dean G. Poppo, Acting Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics, and Technology, and GEN Ann E. Dunwoody, the U.S. Army Materiel Command Commanding General, to set the conditions for success in the Afghanistan theater of operations.

Thank you for taking the time to read this issue dedicated to the DASA(DE&C). We hope you enjoy this edition of Army AL&T Magazine and we hope you visit us again next issue.
