

By authority of the Army Acquisition Executive and
the Military Deputy to the Army Acquisition Executive,

COL Genaro Dellarocco

Is hereby designated as

Director, United States Army ACQUISITION SUPPORT CENTER

As the Director of this Field Operating Agency, your organization will function as the MACOM for the Army Acquisition Corps and the Acquisition Workforce and you will perform duties as the Deputy Director, Acquisition Career Management reporting to the Acquisition Executive through the Military Deputy.

You will, as the responsible management official, manage your assigned personnel and offices in a manner consistent with the policies and principles articulated in Department of Defense and Army policies, directives, regulations, and Acquisition Reform initiatives. In addition, you are responsible for maintaining the Acquisition Corps force structure through the proper allocation of resources, including both personnel and funding. You will actively manage, to the best of your abilities, within approved resources, and provide assessments of program and organizational status on a regular basis.

You are hereby delegated the full-line authority of the Army Acquisition Executive for the management of the Acquisition Support Center. You will be provided with timely decisions by the Senior Leadership and are expected to be candid and forthcoming without fear of personal consequences.

Effective July 16, 2004, these duties and actions remain in effect until terminated or superceded.

JOSEPH L. YAKOVAC
Lieutenant General, USA
Military Deputy

CLAUDE M. BOLTON, JR.
Army Acquisition Executive