MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Establishment of Acquisition Functional Advisors for Military Personnel Serving in Program Management and Contracting

1. Reference memorandum, Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition (Logistics and Technology), SFAE-CDD, subject: Delegation of Authority, 10 November 2010.
2. Referenced memorandum delegates to me all acquisition workforce matters inherent in statute, directives, regulations and policies. This responsibility includes Functional Area 51 (FA51) Commissioned Officers and Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) 51C Noncommissioned Officers.
3. Effective immediately, I am establishing Military Acquisition Functional Advisors and Subject Matter Experts for military acquisition personnel in FA51A-Program Management and FA51C/MOS51C-Contracting. These advisors at the General Officer rank will report directly to me and support my role as the Director for Acquisition Career Management (DACM). I expect these advisors to work in conjunction with my Deputy DACM who serves as the Proponent for the acquisition workforce and executes my day-to-day DACM functions.
4. This senior-level involvement will enhance our Military Acquisition Officer and Noncommissioned Officer Corps' ability to provide our Soldiers a decisive advantage in developing, acquiring, fielding and sustaining the world's best equipment and services to meet the needs, and demands of the 21st century Army.
5. The point of contact is Dr. Robert D. Pratt, commercial (703) 805-1234, DSN 655-1234, or e-mail: robert.d.pratt@us.army.mil.
