

PRE-ANNOUNCEMENT
THIRD ANNUAL ARMY LIFE CYCLE LOGISTICIAN
OF THE YEAR AWARD

This is an advance notice to the upcoming announcement for the third annual Army Life Cycle Logistician of the Year Award. The purpose of the award is to provide recognition of significant contribution for excellence in the field of Life Cycle Logistics (LCL) and achievements in improving the Total Life Cycle Systems Management (TLCSM) process. The Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics, and Technology (ASAALT) Army Acquisition Executive (AAE) will annually award one logistician to recognize significant achievements in LCL. The award is based upon outstanding accomplishments by an Army military or civilian logistician.

The award is open to all Army military and civilian Life Cycle Logisticians residing in PEO/PM, AMC, TRADOC, and other acquisition logistics and sustainment organizations. Personnel participating in the processing and selection process are ineligible. All Army personnel whose contribution for excellence in the field of LCL occurred between 30 Jun 06 and 30 Jun 07 are eligible for the Army Life Cycle Logistician Award. The contribution can be materiel, information, weapon system or process related.

Attached is a copy of the guidelines and criteria for the LCL award and they will also be available on the Acquisition Support Center Website. A formal announcement and call for nominations will be forwarded through the PEOs/ACs/ASCCs/ DRUs, NLT 18 May 07.

Also attached is a requirement to provide photos of the nominees for the award ceremony. Please provide photos as required in the attached memo as part of your nomination package.

Below is an abbreviated timeline for your information and use.

- 4 May: Open data call for nominations
- 13 July: Suspense date for nominations and photos to be submitted to the DASA(ILS) Acquisition Logistics Policy Directorate
- 30 July: Suspense date for recommended award winners packets to be submitted to the Acquisition Support Center (ASC)
