

CDG/AAF Program Requirements

Selection: Upon selection, the CDG/AAF Fellows are assigned to the U.S. Army Acquisition Support Center (USAASC) TDA, for a three-year period beginning after orientation.

Mentor: CDG/AAF Fellows work with a mentor to plan out their three years before the program actually begins.

Developmental Assignments: Developmental assignments are located in some of the following locations: Warren, Huntsville, Washington, D.C., Aberdeen; Florida. CDG/AAF Fellows assignments are in their geographical location.

CDG/AAF Fellows are required to do a HQs Assignment- Six-Month TDY to Washington, D.C. for a developmental assignment at the Pentagon or Crystal City, VA or HQs AMC (Huntsville.)

Mandatory Training requirements:

- ❖ Intermediate Qualifications Course (Huntsville Alabama) for 4-weeks
- ❖ Executive Leadership Courses at Darden (University of Virginia, Charlottesville) for 1-week each
- ❖ Congressional Operations Course (Washington, D.C.) for 5-days
- ❖ PMT 352B DAU Course for 5-weeks (if you have not already taken it)
- ❖ Consortium for Advanced Management International (CAM-I)
- ❖ Other training requirements recommended by the CDG/AAF program.

Program Manager Board:

- ❖ Apply to the Program Manager/Acquisition Key Billet Board in second and third year of the CDG/AAF Program. (Mandatory if on the Program Management Track).