

Letters to the Editor Policy

Army AL&T Magazine welcomes letters about specific articles, columns, or issues of current interest. When referring to a specific article or column, please include the issue in which it ran. Recommended length is 125-300 words. All letters are subject to editing for brevity, clarity, security, grammar, libel, good taste, and conformity to Army AL&T Magazine stylistic standards. Although we are unable to acknowledge those letters we cannot publish, we appreciate the interest and value the views of those who take the time to send us their comments.

Army AL&T Magazine does not publish “open letters” or letters addressed to a third party. Letters being considered for publication must include your name, complete home address, and telephone number, along with a daytime telephone number, in case our staff needs to contact you. If the letter is sent electronically, your e-mail address must also be included. You may receive a phone call to verify that you wrote a letter for publication.

Please indicate if you do not wish your letter to be published.
