

WHO MAY APPLY:

The Acquisition Tuition Assistance Program (ATAP) is available to eligible Acquisition, Logistics and Technology (AL&T) workforce civilians and Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) 51C Noncommissioned Officers (NCOs) in the following three general categories:

Business Hour/Calculus applicants must:

- Be a civilian member or MOS 51C NCO of the Acquisition, Logistics and Technology (AL&T) workforce
- Be fully accepted to an accredited educational institution
- Apply for up to 24 required business hours in an acquisition-related discipline
- Meet all of the requirements as outlined in the ATAP Policy and Procedures

Undergraduate (bachelor's only) applicants must:

- Be a civilian member or MOS 51C NCO of the AL&T workforce
- Be certified in his/her current position and level (except for MOS 51C NCOs and acquisition civilians in Contracting (C); Systems Planning, Research, Development and Engineering – Systems Engineering (S); Test and Evaluation (T); Systems Planning, Research, Development & engineering – Program Systems Engineer (W); or Business – Cost Estimating (P) acquisition career fields)
- Be fully accepted to an accredited educational institution
- Apply for a bachelors degree in an acquisition discipline and include at least 24 hours in an acquisition-related discipline and include 12 business hours in a business degree program; or be in a business degree program; or apply for an educational program in his/her acquisition career field
- Meet all of the requirements as outlined in the ATAP Policy and Procedures

Graduate applicants must:

- Be a civilian member of the AL&T workforce
- Be at least a GS-11 or higher or broadband/pay band equivalent
- Be certified for his/her position and level with a minimum level II certification
- Be accepted to an accredited school
- Apply for a master's degree in an acquisition, business, or acquisition career field discipline
- Meet all of the requirements as outlined in the ATAP Policy and Procedures