

Training Strategy

- Phase I:

- All NCOs requiring BNCOC credit are required to attend the TRADOC Common Core Training 2 weeks (executed IAW ALARACT 103/2004 (Distance Learning)) prior to attending 51C Reclassification Training, contact your Training NCO for further guidance.
- After selection, Active Duty NCOs will attend the US Air Force Contracting Academy, Mission Airmen Ready Contract Apprentice Course (51C Reclassification Training/BNCOC - equivalents), Lackland AFB, TX , 8 weeks in a TDY en-route status to their first initial contracting assignment.
- USAR and ARNG NCOs are required to attend via designated distance learning Defense Acquisition University Contracting courses for 51C Reclassification Training, be awarded MOS 51C and receive BNCOC credit if required.

- Phase II:

- Army Logistics Management College, Huntsville, AL, - ANCOC equivalent, 6 weeks resident course (All Army Components).

