- e. Memorandum, Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics and Technology), SFAE, 17 October 2017, subject: Appointment as the Director, Army Acquisition Corps - hereby rescinded.

2. Pursuant to reference 1.a., my authority as the Army Acquisition Executive (AAE), and your confirmation by the Senate, you are appointed as the Director, Army Acquisition Corps (DAAC).

3. In this capacity, you have full authority to carry out all powers, functions, and duties with respect to the management and oversight of all Army Acquisition Corps (AAC) and Army Acquisition Workforce (AAW) matters in accordance with guidelines outlined in reference 1.b. As the DAAC, you will provide senior level direction and strategic focus for the AAC. Additionally you are responsible for establishing policies and guidance relative to doctrine, organization, training, materiel, leadership and education, personnel, facilities, and policy requirements for the AAC, in accordance with references 1.c. and 1.d. You will also provide flag-level oversight for the operation of the Defense Acquisition Workforce Development Account.

4. You will provide strategic guidance on the accessions, acceptance, membership, and talent management of military and civilian AAW personnel under Title 10, U.S.C. You will act as the proponent and personnel developer for the military acquisition officer
