

SECTION 11 ARMY DACM RESOURCES

The one-stop shop for everything acquisition career-related.

DACM WEBSITE

<https://www.asc.army.mil/>

The website is an invaluable resource for accessing policies, career management updates, and education and training opportunities.

As the first line of support for employee's career development, supervisors should encourage employees to use available resources.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION (FAQ) TOOL

<https://asc.army.mil/web/all-faqs/>

- Supervisors and employees should leverage the FAQ tool on the DACM website.
- FAQ search functionality facilitates finding answers to career-related questions about DAU training, SRPE, and other topic areas.

OAP

Organizational Acquisition POC

- Communicate acquisition information to their command's/organization's AAW professionals.
- Answer broad policy questions for an AAW member.
- Connection between the command's/organization's ACMA's, Supervisors, and its AAW professionals.

Access to:

- Army DACM Office Acquisition Career Managers.
- CAPPMS reporting tools.

ACMA

Acquisition Career Management Advocate

- A senior level acquisition leader, generally at the senior executive service and military general officer or colonel levels.
- Partners with DACM Office.
- Provides a critical, strategic-organizational level perspective.
- Advocates on behalf of their organization's AAW.

ACM

Acquisition Career Managers

- Respond to employee Help Request submissions.
- Partner with OAPs in support of AAW career-related information.
- Facilitate SRPE issues.
- Process DAU training seat scheduling.
- Process certification, membership and waiver requests.
- Conduct outreach and information presentations.