

Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics, and Technology

2023 Army Acquisition Executive's (AAE) Excellence in Leadership Awards

Please read the following information carefully before completing and submitting this application.

Category: Barbara C. Heald (Deployed Contracting Civilian) Award

Background: The 2023 AAE's Excellence in Leadership Award for the Barbara C. Heald (Deployed Contracting Civilian) recognizes the professional whose outstanding contributions and achievements support the Army Contracting Enterprise and merits special recognition.

Eligibility:

1. Any AAW civilian or non-AAW deployed civilian who has made significant contributions to contracting during their tour of duty in support of an office that operates under the management or oversight of the AAW is eligible. (Examples of non-AAW personnel include deployed Army and Air National Guard personnel)
2. Nominee contributions must have been made between 1 June 2022 – 31 May 2023.
3. If a member of the AAW, the following requirements must be met:
 - a. Occupy an acquisition workforce designated position.
 - b. Is current, or within the grace period, in their Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) acquisition career field certification and achieved the required 80 continuous learning points during the prior two-year continuous learning cycle (1 Oct 2020 - 30 Sep 2022).

Evaluation Criteria:

Nominees for this award must have made a significant contribution during the eligibility period to be considered for this award. This award recognizes the past performance of an individual who has clearly demonstrated exceptional mission accomplishment, selfless service to the United States, extraordinary and uncompromising professionalism, and true commitment to the personal and professional growth of others within the command.

Nominations will be considered based on demonstrated excellence and contribution to acquisition mission success in the following areas.

1. Specific achievements during the eligibility period. Given that many achievements result from one's efforts and contributions cumulatively over a period of time, achievements that take place over more than the 12-month window may be reported, but the culmination of the work must be within the window. Quantifiable descriptions of achievements are particularly desired. What impact did their action have on the unit or command?

2. Value of the nominee's contributions during the award period to the mission of one's organization in supporting one or more of the ASA(ALT)'s priorities:
 - a. Delivering timely capabilities
 - b. Streamlining acquisition and business processes
 - c. Informing program requirements
 - d. Developing innovative solutions for acquisition problems
3. Demonstration of leadership, including, by example, mentoring, and best practices to enhance the success of one's team and the greater acquisition community in achieving acquisition outcome success.
4. Barbara C. Heald (Deployed Contracting Civilian) Award criteria: recognizes a deployed civilian contracting professional whose actions clearly demonstrate or embody those unique, outstanding qualities possessed by Ms. Heald. This includes making extraordinary commitment and sacrifices in the service of their country; demonstrated professionalism in contracting; and dedicated to selfless public service aimed at supporting the mission of the United States Army.

Nomination Deadline and Submission:

1. The deadline for nomination submissions is September 7, 2023. Submissions will not be accepted after 11:59 p.m. ET, September 7, 2023.
2. Only one nomination may be submitted from each organization.
3. Completed nomination packets must be submitted to the U.S. Army Acquisition Support Center (USAASC) Army Director, Acquisition Career Management (DACM) Office through the Web-based call for nominations application at:
<https://asc.army.mil/web/aae-awards/>

Nomination Packet Requirements and Format:

A completed nomination submission package will include the following:

1. Signed endorsement memo (one per nomination).
 - a. The senior ranking civilian employee or military official will provide an endorsement letter to describe the nomination. The letter MUST indicate that the nominee is current, or within the grace period, in his or her DAWIA acquisition career field certification and continuous learning points.
 - b. Each nomination must have its own endorsement memo addressed to Director, Acquisition Career Management, 9900 Belvoir Rd, Bldg. 201, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060.
2. Completed nomination form with the following components:
 - a. Narrative
 - Separate sections describing the contributions for each of the four evaluation criteria (specific achievements; value of the nominee's contributions; demonstration of leadership; and Barbara C. Heald (Deployed Civilian) Award specific criteria).

- Should not exceed two pages.
- The format will be single-spaced text, Times New Roman, 12-point font, single-sided 8 ½" x 11" page, 1" margins.

b. Citation

- A short summary of accomplishments (not to exceed 200 words). This should be at the end of the nomination form and does not count against the two-page limit.

Miscellaneous Details:

1. The nominating point of contact (POC) and/or the organization's award POC will receive an automated email to confirm receipt of a completed submission. Contact the awards coordinator if the POC does not receive a confirmation email within one day after the submission.
2. An appointed panel of judges will select the award winners.
3. The awards will be presented by the AAE at the annual Army Acquisition Awards ceremony in January 2024.
